MARK WITT, VIOLIN

Mark Witt is a sophomore from Nashville, Tennessee majoring in music therapy. Mark began studying the violin with his father at the age of five and then attended the Blair School of Music at Vanderbilt University as a violin student of Cornelia Heard. At Blair he participated in two string quartets and the chamber orchestra.

Mark is an active member of the Music Therapy Association and is concertmaster of the UE Symphony Orchestra. He spends the summer as a counselor at Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp in Twin Lake, Michigan.

Mark is a violin student of Carol Dallinger.

LONNIE D. KLEIN, CONDUCTOR

Lonnie Klein, a native of Henderson, Kentucky was recently appointed to the faculty as Visiting Assistant Professor of Music. His responsibilities include conducting the university symphony orchestra, teaching conducting and various music education courses.

Mr. Klein has been on the faculty of Hope College in Holland, Michigan where he was the wind ensemble/orchestra director and also instructor of applied clarinet.

Previous teaching experience includes three years as band director at Daviess County High School in Owensboro, Kentucky.

Klein received his undergraduate degree in Music Education from Murray State University in Murray, Kentucky; his Masters in conducting and clarinet performance at Michigan State University where he studied with Leon Gregorian and Elsa Ludwig-Verdehr. Currently Klein is enrolled in the doctoral program in clarinet performance at the University of Illinois.

Besides conducting, Klein has played in the Paducah Symphony, Owensboro Symphony (Ky.), Evansville Philharmonic (In.), Jackson Symphony (Mi.), and Urbana-Champaign (Il.) symphony orchestras.

In addition, Klein has toured with the national "Calvacade Performance Workshops", teaching band pedagogy classes at universities in Kentucky, Tennessee, Louisiana, Ohio, Indiana, Nevada, Michigan, Illinois, Colorado, Nebraska, Missouri, Idaho and Hawaii.

His professional affiliations include membership in the International Clarinet Society, M.E.N.C., I.M.E.A., College Music Society and the Conductor's Guild. Most recently, Klein was listed in the publication "Who's Who in America in the Midwest".

Klein is married to Ellen Gerdeman-Klein, an accomplished clarinetist in her own right, who played professionally in Germany for 12 years. She is presently working toward a Ph.D in German Literature at the University of Illinois.
